On Tuesday night, Madison scholars gathered at the Madison High School Commons for the 2019 National Honor Society Banquet. Selection to be in this superb group of students is based on four criteria: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. New inductees for this school year for the juniors were Deicy Navarro, Veronica Gomez-Perez, Marie Sjuts, Yesenia Torres, Diana Zuniga, Rachel Jackson, Jordan Ehlers, Adrianna Dohmen. The senior class added two members: Gabe Romero and Angel Nava. Returning members from last year were Ruth Yuman, Jana Scheffler, Claire Schaecher, Andrew Milan, Tatiana Gronenthal, Alicia Estrada, and Hannah Anderson. The sponsor for National Honor Society is Mr. Patrick Kratochvil.

Two Medalists at Conference Speech

The Dragon Speech team travelled to Humphrey on Tuesday to compete in the 2019 East Husker Conference Speech meet. The team would bring back two medals from the varsity division. The sophomore duo of Jonathan Hernandez and Fryda Molina would bring back 2nd and 6th in the Poetry category respectively. Jonathan also placed 2nd in the merit rounds at the huge Norfolk High Speech Competition. Congratulations and good luck during the rest of the year!

FFA Qualifies in Nursery and Landscape

The Nursey and Landscape team of Kendry Arrazcaeta, Elizabeth Garcia, Albi Rodriguez, and Andrew Estrada placed first at their district competition Wednesday at Northeast Community College in Norfolk. This qualifies them to compete at the state competition in Lincoln in April. Congratulations.
